The gnomes live in the oldest tree in the forest. Once, they had invited Mother Hawthorne to their home using the old magic. She was made small for just five hours. It was a very special day that she will never forget. Each year on the day the acorn children come the gnomes watch from their windows and participate by..