

Butterfly and Juniper are the gatherers of the gathering. These two go around and sing to everyone to come help get ready for breakfast or games, the fire circle or if someone has a problem and needs everyone's help. They will sing for someone who can mend a dress, fix an instrument or heal a wound. Today they are flying through and singing because it is time for the...

