

The Peppermint Tea Pools attract many beings human, gnome and animals alike. One pool is for drinking and the other is for soaking. Some say that the peppermint tea fairies have enchanted the waters to lend a bit of magic to those who drink or soak in them. The children think it must be true for their tummies felt warm for hours after their small cup of tea and they think that their wishes have started to come true. For example...

A series of horizontal dashed lines for writing, spanning most of the page width.

