

Hopping from one cranberry to the next the children play a game to see who can get to the other side without getting their feet wet. Just then a squirrel hops through making the whole cranberry bog swish and splash to and fro, and making absolutely certain that both of the children have very wet feet! Once on the other side they laugh and laugh as they take off their shoes and ring their dripping socks. The squirrel sits on the other side of the bog chattering away. The children think maybe she is laughing too...

