The little woman comes out of her clove orange home as soon as she sees the children. She has just taken a loaf of orange bread from the oven and is ever so happy to share. She bakes for the whole village, each day waking before the sun to prepare loaves upon loaves before it's time for breakfast. Remy and Rose say thank you and notice that the woman's children are looking for their lost bunny.

The children offer to help look and soon...

	A
	AA DA
) - 1 Lu C
	JIMUA
7	