

Cassandra the cat from Bible Babble lane is as wild as she is tame. She lives with a family but prowls at night just looking at, not eating, all the birds in sight. She often likes to be alone, but on parade day, the crowd feels like home. Her favorite part are the funny songs, the ones made up that aren't too long. The best one is about mice and shoes and giraffes and parrots and kangaroos.

