

A traveler comes through once every few months. Each time the girl has a letter ready to send with him and he has a letter for her. Years ago the girl asked the traveler if he ever saw any children on his trips. "Why yes", he said with a smile. "I do. In fact, there is a boy just your age on the other side of the mountains. She had asked if she could send a letter with him and she hoped the boy would write back. He did! And they had been writing letters brought and sent with the traveler ever since. The letter that the traveler brought today has some exciting news..."
